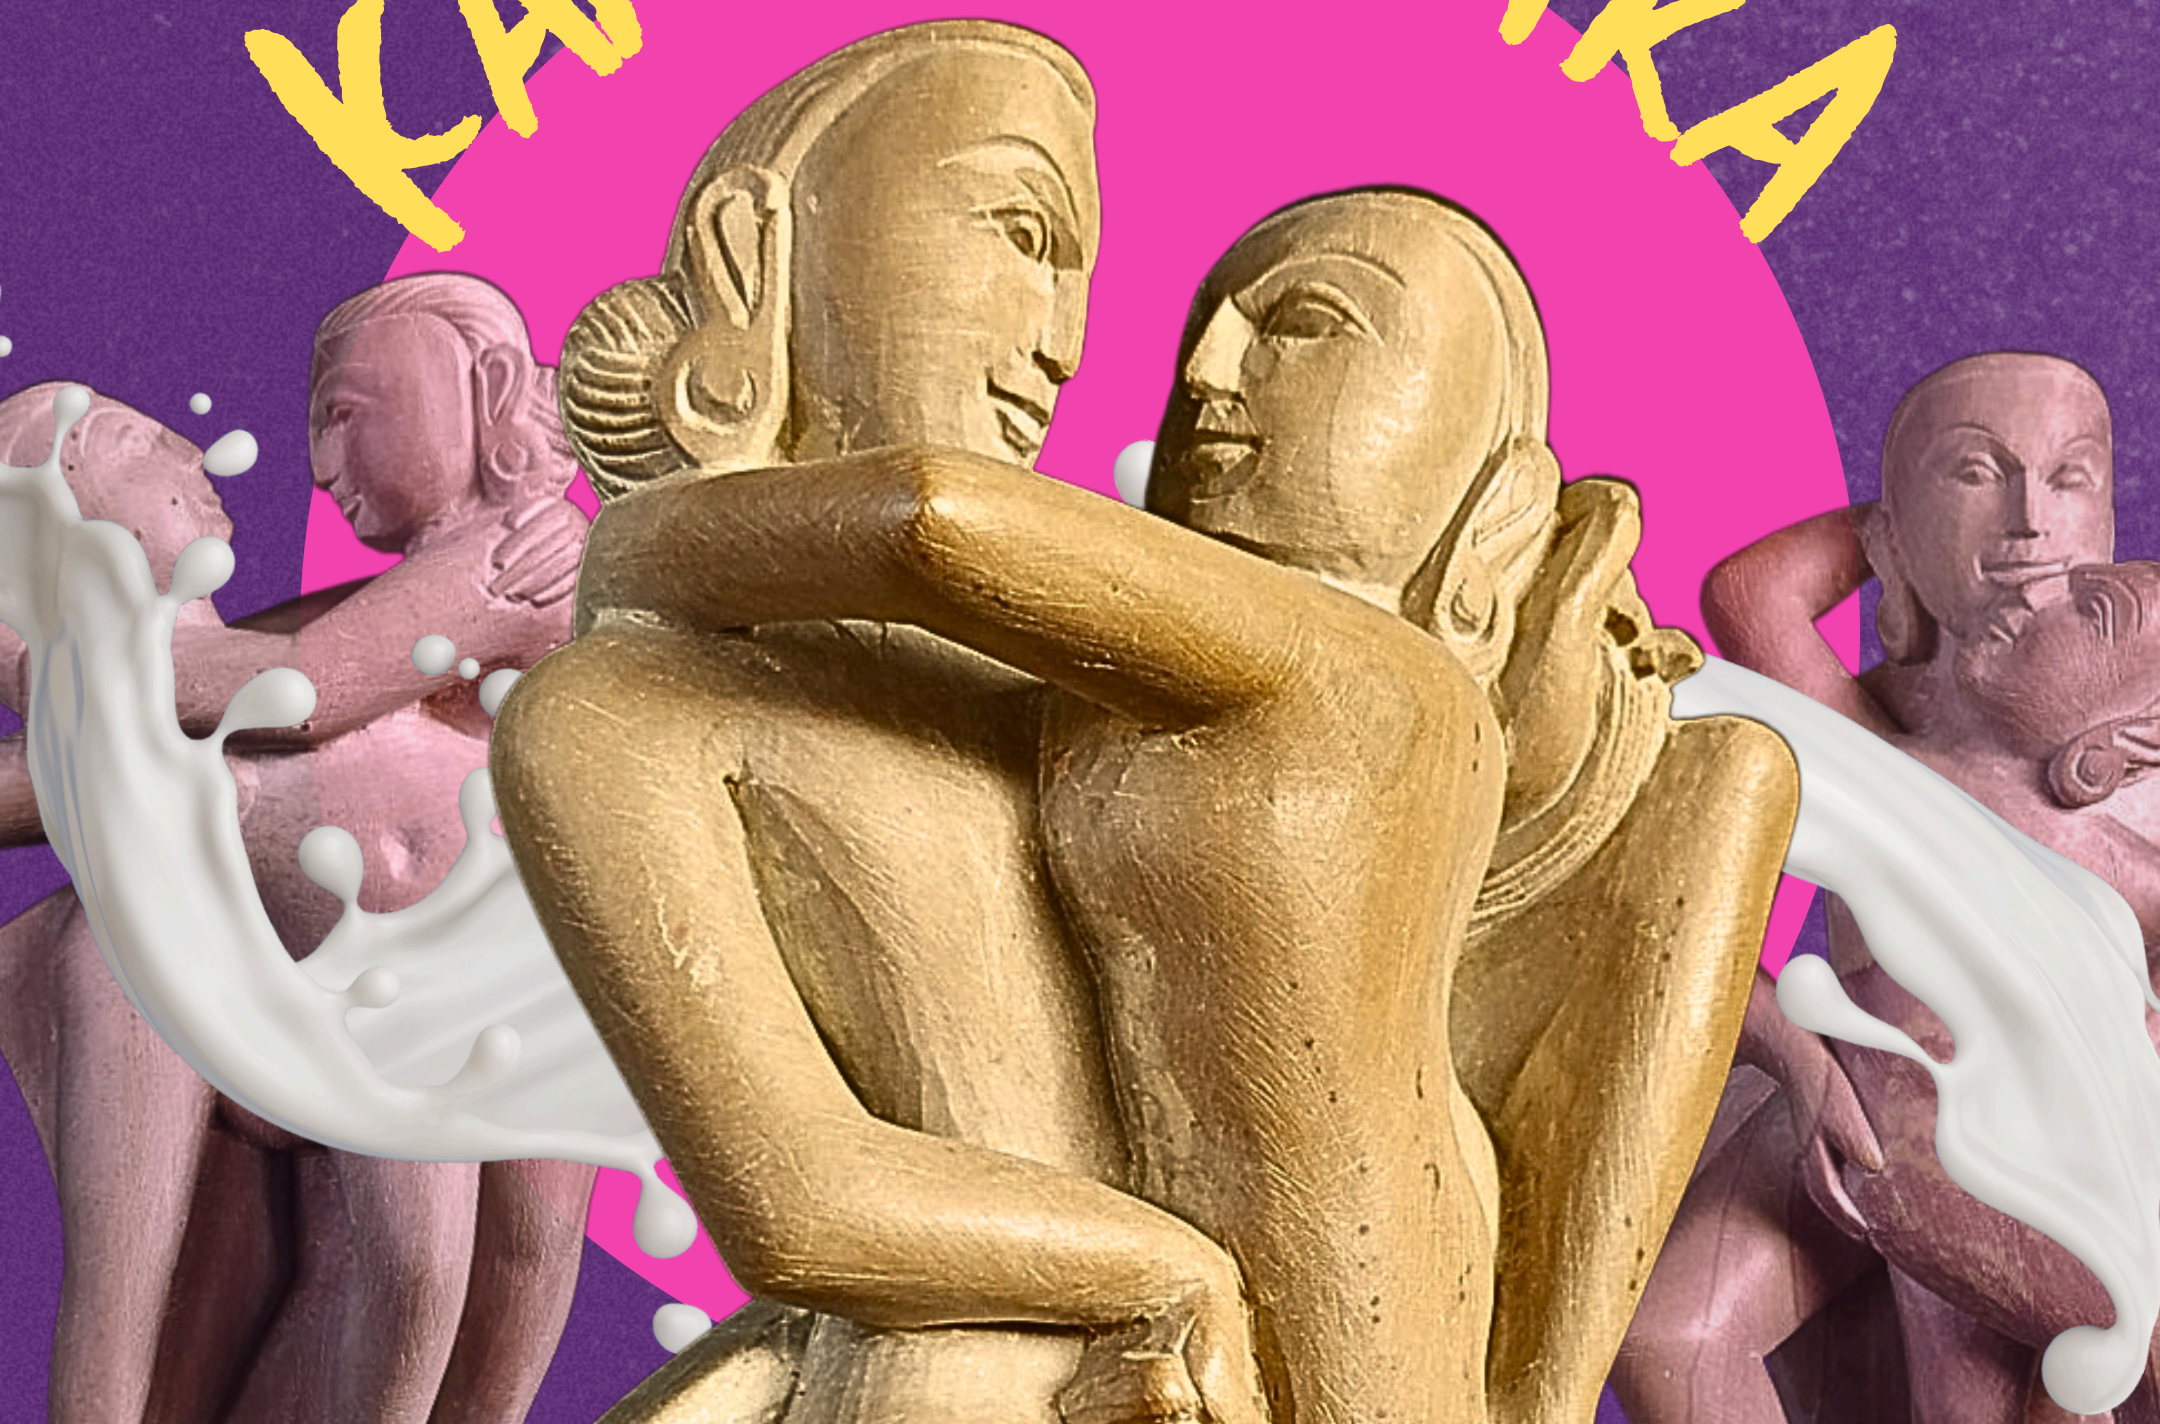
MAzztVrBAtion facts from KAMA-SHAStRA



sPVrm
was believed to be LiviNG
equating the act of
mAzztVrBAtion
with "kiLLiNG"

Because spurm is essential in the creation of life, some philosophies regard it with a kind of sanctity, see it as holding the "seed" of future life. In this context, releasing spurm is seen as ending its potential to become a life.

The

KAm-SUtrA

acknowledges

sELf-PLEzUrE

as a nAtUrAL

part of life

Its mentions of self-plezure suggests a balanced view of seggsuality, where individuals are encouraged to explore their desires in both partnered and solitary contexts.

ANCIENT TEMPLES

depict all forms of

HUMAN SEGGSUALITY,

including

SELF-PLEZURE!

In some cases, female figures are depicted in self-plezuring poses, suggesting an acceptance of personal plezure and seggsual autonomy.

IN TANTRA
self-plezure isn't
TABOO,
it's a form of
SEGGSUAL YOGA!

Tantric texts often view mazzturbation as a form of sadhana (spiritual practice), where the individual can harness and channel seggsual energy inward.

Self-control over

SEGGSVAL VrGES

is key for those on a

SPIRITVAL PATH

– monks & celibates

By practicing self-control, monks and celibates seek to quiet these desires, achieving a state of mental clarity and peace that's essential for deep meditation and introspection.
